

Another senior conservative MP adds support to Tockwith Campaigners

Shadow Secretary of State for Transport and Conservative MP, Theresa Villiers, visited Tockwith this week to add her support for the campaign against the proposed incinerator plant which many residents are concerned will affect their quality of life.

Concerned about the lack of road infrastructure to accommodate the inevitable increase in heavy traffic movements, Miss Villiers has promised to write to the Highways Agency expressing her concerns. Theresa Villiers also discussed local transport issues with residents, promising to look at the issue of lack of parking facilities at Rail stations like Cattal.

Accompanied by local council candidate, John Savage and Nigel Adams, she also visited the village primary school where they had lunch with the headmistress and met with staff and children.
